COLLEGE OF MARITIME CATERING & HOSPITALITY STUDIES

Hotel Visits

In the month of July Mr. Onkar Naik (Training and Placement Coordinator) from CMCHS visited different hotels where our students were placed for internship. The primary objective of the visit was to meet students those who were undertaking internship at respective hotels, and to gather feedback from the hotel's training manager regarding the performance and progress of the interns.

Overall, the visit was positive, and both students and the training manager provided constructive insights into the internship experience. The students appeared to be making significant progress, gaining valuable hands-on experience, and is well-regarded by the hotel staff. The training manager's feedback indicated that the internship program was achieving its goals of preparing students for careers in the hospitality industry.

Welcome Onboard

The month of July progressed well with a Bollywood Themed fresher's party for our newly joined students where they have engrossed themselves with different engagement activities as well as fancy dress competition which was the determinant of Mr. & Ms. Fresher.

TY BACA who had organized the event in the Hasham Mess. Students were enriched by lovely thought and motivational speeches by our senior faculty members Dr. Anupam & Mr. Paul Koshy.

The Ultimate Pakora Battle

The season of monsoon is always perfect to have nice pakoras in left hand and cutting chai in right hand accompanying with spicy and tangy chutneys. So on a crisp afternoon, a much-anticipated event took place—The Ultimate Pakora Battle. A competition that had food enthusiasts and aspiring chefs from TY BACA, SY BACA & SY MHS gathered to showcase their skills in creating the ultimate pakora, a beloved Indian snack known for its deep-fried, crispy goodness.

Vegan Seminar

TO GET MUD OFF YOUR HANDS USE SOAP & WATER, TO GET BLOOD OF YOUR HAND GO VEGAN.

"Veganism is a philosophy and way of living which seeks to exclude—as far as possible and practicable—all forms of exploitation and cruelty to animals for food, clothing or any other purpose. A Seminar was organized for TY BACA & SY BACA students by YV CARE foundation. They also conducted an intra-college Vegan Chef competition.

Chef Soumendra Palo, Rashmila Arora, and Monali Jain were the judges at the competition on August 23, 2024. The competition was specifically for second and third-year students and showcased a variety of innovative and delicious vegan dishes, highlighting the students' culinary creativity and commitment to sustainable cooking practices.

Fish Curry Competition

Chef Anish Deshmukh brought his culinary expertise to T.S. Rahaman, where he served as a judge for a fish curry competition. The event featured students from various courses, including FYMHS, FY BACA, SY MHS, and SY BACA, all competing to craft the perfect fish curry. Chef Anish's involvement added a layer of excitement and prestige to the competition, inspiring the participants to elevate their culinary creations.

Chef Anish Deshmukh's career is a remarkable blend of experience, innovation, and leadership. His contributions to the hospitality industry, both as a chef and an entrepreneur, continue to inspire the next generation of culinary professionals. As he expands his influence in the industry, Anish remains a beacon of excellence, constantly pushing the boundaries of what is possible in the world of hospitality.

A distinguished figure in the hospitality industry, Anish Deshmukh has carved a niche for himself with an impressive career spanning nearly two decades. With a post-graduation in hospitality management and a wealth of experience that includes stints at prestigious establishments like Taj London, Anish's journey is a testament to his passion and dedication to the culinary arts.
